

Page 2

- Direct to Slaughter

Page 3

- Exhibition, show, or fair

Page 4

- Breeding or milking purposes

Page 5

- Other, including non-breeding companion animals

Page 6

Commuter Permit or Adjacent State Permit

NOTE: Electronic CVIs do not need a permit number.

Reason for movement - Applies to all sheep and goatsDirect to Slaughter*Requirements:

- No CVI required.
- Official ID (including Lot IDs) or a USDA-approved backtag is required for import direct to slaughter UNLESS a USDA-approved backtag will be placed at the slaughter establishment.

Import for Exhibition/Show/FairAre these rams?

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Must be examined for and found free of Show Lamb Fungus.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Must be examined for and found free of Show Lamb Fungus.

Under 6
months of ageAge?6 months of age or olderDo any of the following situations apply?

- Ram is from a state-certified Brucella ovis free flock
- Ram is returning on a commuter or adjacent state permit AND has not been exposed to any female sheep other than those moving under the permit
- Ram is returning to its Wyoming premises of origin from an artificial insemination collection facility where no female exposure occurred

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Must be examined for and found free of Show Lamb Fungus.
- If from a state-certified flock, the certified flock number must be recorded on the CVI.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Must be examined for and found free of Show Lamb Fungus.
- Rams must have a negative approved Brucella ovis test within 30 days prior to import.

Import for breeding or milking purposesAre these rams?

Yes

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.

Under 6
months of ageAge?6 months of age or olderDo any of the following situations apply?

- Ram is from a state-certified Brucella ovis free flock
- Ram is returning on a commuter or adjacent state permit AND has not been exposed to any female sheep other than those moving under the permit
- Ram is returning to its Wyoming premises of origin from an artificial insemination collection facility where no female exposure occurred

Yes

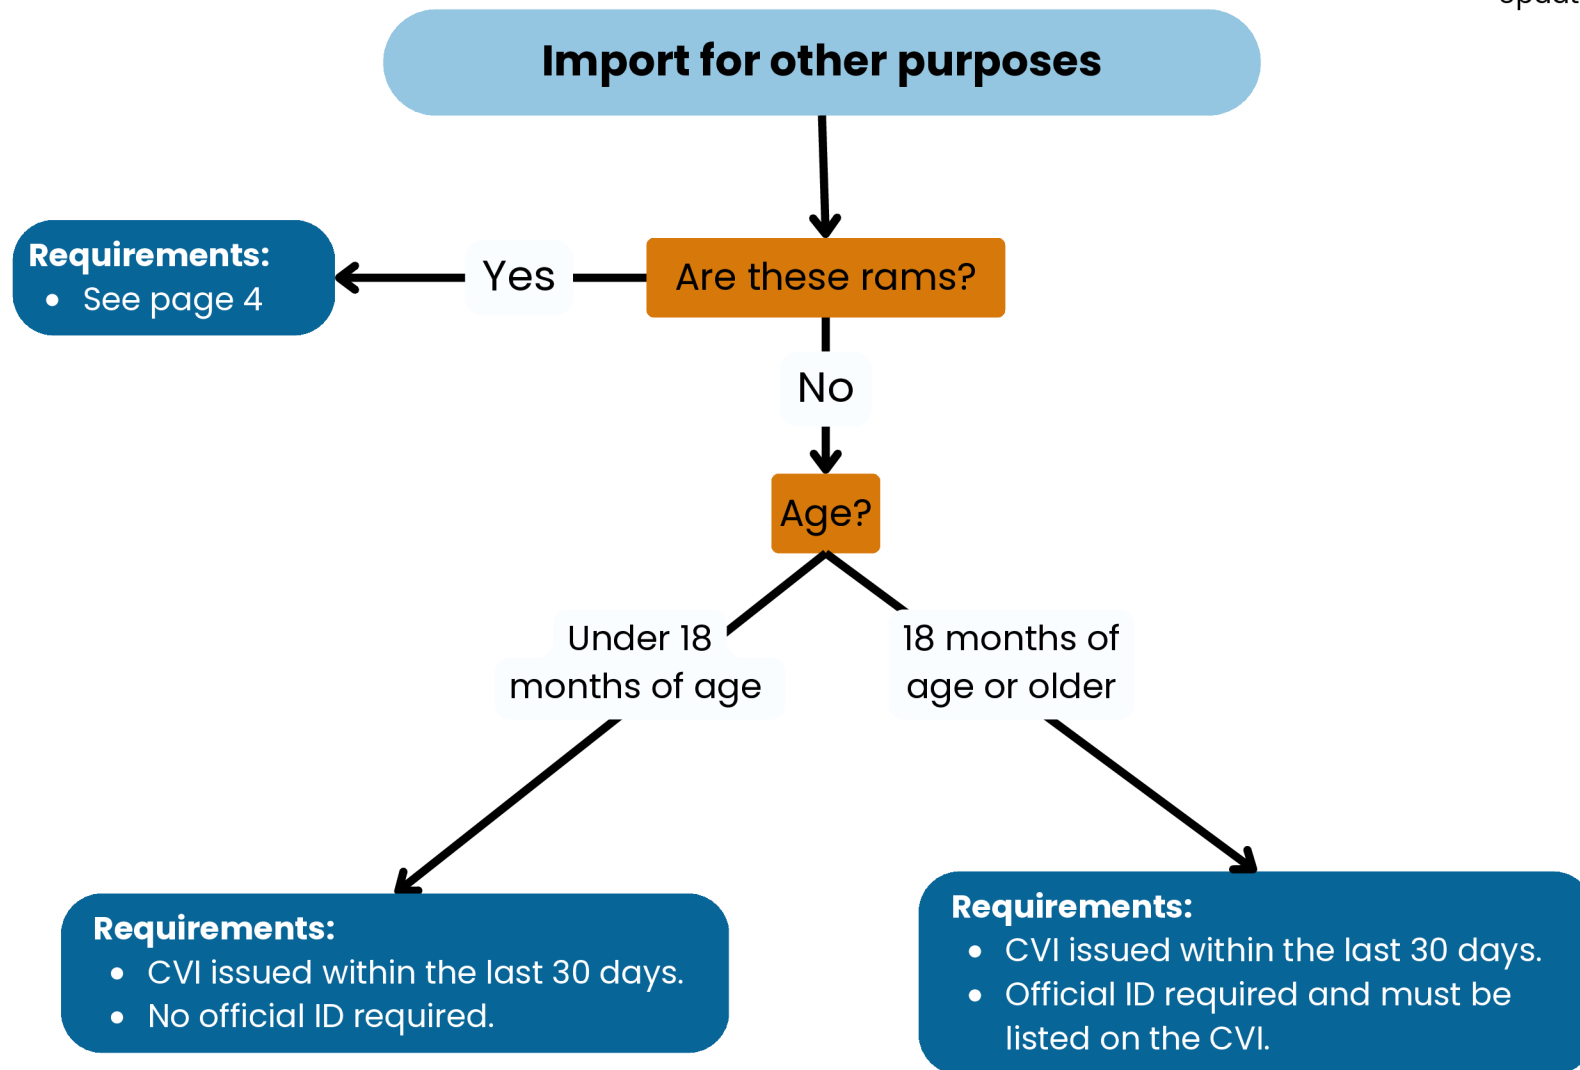

No

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- If from a state-certified flock, the certified flock number must be recorded on the CVI.

Requirements:

- CVI issued within the last 30 days.
- Official ID required and must be listed on the CVI.
- Rams must have a negative approved Brucella ovis test within 30 days prior to import.

Import on Commuter or Adjacent State Permit

Has the commuter or adjacent state permit been approved by the State Animal Health Official of both the state of origin and destination?

Yes

No

Is Wyoming the state of origin?

Contact the Wyoming Livestock Board at 307-777-7515.

Yes

No

Requirements:

- Original CVI from initial movement
- Copy of approved Commuter/Adjacent State permit

Requirements:

- CVI issued within last 30 days.
- Copy of approved Commuter/Adjacent State permit
- Import requirements as documented in the Commuter/Adjacent state permit must be followed.